Why Mrs. Osborne Stole.

It seems inevitable now that when Mrs. Osborne comes up for her trial, interesting details, which hitherto have been kept secret, must come out. London is surprised with more or less accurate gossip about this mysterious case, but one statement seems to be generally accepted as accurate. Mrs. Osborne went to money to satisfy the extravagant claims of a man with whom she had a liaison and who persistently blackmails her for five years. This man, from all reliable accounts, was a vulgar fellow. Every effort has been made to impress this phase of the story, but from all appearances it may eventually come out. It has transpired that the blackmail which led to the discovery was paid through Misses. Maple for household linen. Mrs. Osborne did use some of the money raised from the jewels, to pay personal debts, but most of it was paid off as blackmail. —London Dispatch to N.Y. World.

It will do a week good more in one night than any other Liniment.

It is a great external Remedy for Rheumatism, Swelling in Hives, Scratches, Old Sores, Kickin' Windgalls, and all Diseases which require a Liniment.

Price $1.00 per bottle.

"POISONED."

Two hundred and thirty-six persons died recently from the effects of poison taken in ice cream and pastries flavored with adulterated flavoring extracts. The extracts are sold at a low price, and the flavoring attracts you. To select proper material for flavoring requires a thorough knowledge of chemistry, without which it is impossible to tell what is in the flavoring.

Flavoring Extracts. They are the world's best, and are sold at a low price by James C. Larrick, Washington, D. C. Hotel Benefit, Baltimore, Md.; Albermarle Hotel, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Davis House, Richmond, Va.; New York, Philadelphia, Pa.; Cincinnati, Ohio; St. Louis, Mo.; Paris, France; first-class merchants, ice cream and pastry manufacturers throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle; also sold in pints, quarts, gallons and barrels.

THE STONEBRAKER CHEMICAL CO., Baltimore, Md.

Soles Proprietors. Price $1.00 per bottle. Ask for Indian Ghee. It mends china, plate, jewelry, leather, and everything breakable. Price 5 cents the world over.
